

Community Investment 2010

Every year, Matan invests the resources it raises in hundreds of social programs in the community throughout Israel. These resources are invested through various activities: Initiating community projects in partnership with businesses, donors and non-profit organizations • Managing the community investments of companies, foundations and private donors • Providing grants, according to decisions made by Matan's public committees • Developing volunteer projects with companies and their employees • Providing a training program to develop CEOs of non-profit organizations.
